FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hilton Head Health Partners with PGA Tour Academy

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, SC (June 1, 2009) – Hilton Head Health (H3) is pleased to announce that they have recently partnered with the PGA Tour Academy to offer weekly golf clinics. Beginning June 3, 2009, H3 Guests will have the opportunity to participate in 90-minute golf clinics lead by instructor Hart Baker at the Shipyard Plantation golf course. The clinics will only be available to H3 Guests and will be offered every Wednesday at 1 p.m.

The weekly golf clinics will be in a four-week rotation and are suitable for beginners through advanced golf enthusiasts. The clinic sessions include Stretching and GPA (Grip, Posture, Alignment), Impact Zone, Pivot and Short Game/Putting. The cost is $60 per Guest and will include travel to and from the Shipyard location, rental equipment, professional instruction and video analysis technology.

According to Adam Martin, director of fitness, "With only six other locations nationwide, the PGA Tour Academy is an elite training facility, and we're very excited to have them onboard, as it allows us the opportunity to offer a unique experience to our Guests."
